

Discussion Questions Printout:

What are conditions like in the Warsaw ghetto?

What are some of the ways that Anna and her family cope with life in the ghetto?

Anna reminisces about what life was like for her family two years ago. What kind of life did the family have before they were forced to move into the Warsaw ghetto?

In Chapter 3, Anna describes waiting in line for the bathroom with her parents, to do something “dangerous.” What was so dangerous to do in the ghetto?

We become acquainted with Anna’s teacher Ms. Rechtman and some of her students. When Jolanta brings three vaccinations against typhoid fever, who does Anna suggest should receive the typhoid vaccination and why?

What very difficult decision do Anna’s parents have to make? _____

How does Anna feel about becoming “Anna Karwolska?” _____

What are some of the preparations Anna must make to escape from the ghetto?
